CALL TO ORDER

Chairman Stephen Gooch and Mayor Gray McCullough called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. County Commissioners present were Chairman Stephen Gooch, District Commissioners John Raber, Deborah Hutcheson, Clarence Stowers and Clarence Grindle. City officials present were Mayor Gary McCullough, Council Members Guy Laboa, and Bill Scott. Council Members Michael Clemmons, Terry Peters, Gerald Lord and Sam Norton were not present. Lumpkin County Development Authority and Downtown Development Authority members were also present.

APPROVAL OF AGENDA

No action was taken on the agenda.

NEW BUSINESS

Closing of the Mohawk Industries, Pine Tree Plant in Dahlonega

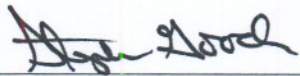

The county and city officials discussed developing a "Quick Response Plan" to help the 366 employees that will be losing their jobs when the Mohawk plant closes in June. Everyone was in agreement that the first step would be to meet with Mohawk Industries. Mayor McCullough said he would set up a meeting with Mohawk officials in Calhoun, GA.

County, City and Development Authorities plan to work together in development of a "Quick Response Plan."

ADJOURN

Chairman Gooch and Mayor McCullough adjourned the meeting at 10:55 a.m.
